Benjamin Britten
Our Hunting Fathers, Gloriana-Suite et al.
Mark Padmore; Ivor Bolton; Basler Sinfonieorchester

PROSP0031	1 CD

Ivor Bolton has been principal conductor of the Basel Symphony Orchestra since the beginning of the 2016/17 season and has always had a special affinity with British music. The present CD with rather unknown music by Benjamin Britten was therefore a very special concern for him from the very beginning. The program consists of the early cycle Our Hunting Fathers (with tenor Mark Padmore), the Quatre Chansons francaises (a stroke of genius by the only 14-year-old) and the suite from the unfortunately rarely performed opera Gloriana, which was written for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.
